

Riviera Garden Club Stages Annual Show

"Living With Flowers" was the theme of the Riviera Garden Club's eighth annual flower show on a recent Wednesday. Interior of the clubhouse at the South Coast Botanical Gardens was filled with beautiful floral arrangements and specimen blooms provided by the many participating members.

The show was divided into four divisions: the artistic division dominated by the floral arrangements; the horticultural division which included annual, perennial, herb, cactus, and vine specimens; a junior division for floral arrangements by children; and an educational exhibit displaying ground covers suitable for the South Bay area.

Sweepstakes winner in the artistic division was Mrs.

Thomas Stuelpnagel, and the horticultural winner was Mrs. Robert Atha. Other winners were Mmes. Robert Dees, Robert Katherman, and Mrs. John Shuler, Jr. Top winners in the children's division were Marcia Wylie, Patrick Atha, and Mary Louise Scott.

This was the first standard flower show held by the Riviera Garden Club. Specific requirements as to show content, judges, and judging must be followed in order to be classified as a standard show by California Garden Clubs, Inc.

Judges for the show were Mrs. Edith Hendrickson, Mrs. C. Carroll Stough, and Maria L. P. Wilkes.

The flower show chairman was Mrs. Thomas Stuelpnagel, and her assistant was Mrs. Robert Dees.
